

We are delighted to bring you the 2012 Partners Program which we ensure is both fun and interesting.

In addition to the activities planned we have two VIP functions to which you have a personal invitation and to which you can bring a delegate of your choice.

Partner's Program Inclusions.
$1250 value for only $995

Tuesday 6th March Swan Valley Wine Experience 9.15am – 4.30pm

Today we take a leisurely cruise along the beautiful Swan River to the Swan Valley winery region. Sample local wines and gourmet food and have a shot at making your own wine, before returning to your hotel to prepare for the Welcome Reception at the State Reception Centre, Kings Park. The Swan Valley winery tour is also open to delegates as an alternative to the sporting activities. If an active day is what you prefer, opt in to the cycling, golf or sailing.

Wednesday 7th March Keynote Address & Morning Tea 8.30am – 10.00am

Wednesday is the first day of speaker sessions and you are most welcome to attend the opening keynote address with the Hon Jeff Kennett AC, former Premier of Victoria. Following this, join the VIP morning tea with senior members of UDIA National and State councils along with a number of the Congress presenters. You will have the opportunity to meet other partners attending the Congress.

Perth Streets – Walking tour of your host city 11.00am – 2.00pm

Following morning tea you will commence a walking tour of Perth both on, but mainly off, the tourist track. This information-packed two hour guided walk takes you through the heart of Perth with a friendly "Sandgroper" as your guide. Explore the Central Business District, and hear about the history, heritage, culture and architecture of the city. You will discover the evolving small bar scene and little known, out of the way places. The tour takes time for a leisurely lunch at the Cheeky Sparrow, one of Perth's new breed of cafes.
Afternoon at leisure.

A Night at the Museum 7.00pm – 10.30pm

Set in the heart of the Perth Cultural Precinct in Northbridge, this event is the perfect way to experience the many facets of Western Australian life from our history and culture to the bustling nightlife. The Cultural Precinct is undergoing a program of revitalisation that is totally transforming the inner city. You will be treated to a truly multi-cultural experience which is uniquely Northbridge.

Thursday 8th March Sculptures by the Sea

Sculptures by the Sea is an annual event where over 70 local, interstate and international artists transform Perth's most popular beach into a stunning sculpture park overlooking the Indian Ocean. Afternoon tea will be at one of Perth's funkier restaurants, overlooking Cottesloe Beach and the sparkling green waters of the Indian Ocean.
Evening at leisure.

Friday 9th March Art Gallery plus getting up close and personal with Robyn Moore 11.00am – 4.00pm

Join in a personal tour of the West Australian Art Gallery where you will be treated to the "Vast: North West Landscapes" exhibition which includes works by Australian artists Russell Drysdale, Guy Grey-Smith, Robert Juniper, Sidney Nolan and many others who worked and travelled through the North West after it opened up in the 1960's, significantly shaping their practice. After lunch at the Art Gallery Cafe you will return to the convention centre for a special treat; the opportunity to chat to our motivational speaker, Robyn Moore before she goes on stage to wow the crowd. After that it is time to get ready for the evening's festivities.

6:00pm – 7:00pm VIP Drinks 7:00pm till late UDIA National Awards for Excellence

The second VIP event to which you are invited is the very special pre-dinner drinks before the National Congress Gala Dinner. You are free to invite the delegate of your choice to the pre-dinner drinks featuring the "who's who" of the development industry.

The BelleVue Ballroom is set for an evening of elegance and glamour for the presentation of the UDIA 2012 National Awards. Guests will enjoy a three course meal accompanied by fine Western Australian wines and dance the night away to one of Perth's best bands: the exciting 11 piece Greg Schultz Band.
